

Refund Policy

Customers may request a refund within 30 calendar days of the original purchase date.

Eligibility

Refunds are available for eligible purchases when the request is submitted within the 30-day refund window. Some promotional or third-party purchases may have different terms.

Processing

Approved refunds are normally returned to the original payment method. Banks and card providers may require additional business days before the credit appears.

How to request a refund

Contact Support with the order number, purchase date, and reason for the request. Support will review the request and confirm whether it qualifies under this policy.
